

Lora Gould Retires, Ausagra Acres Programs Suspended

Lora Gould, executive director of the Grayling Housing Commission, retired voluntarily from her position Tuesday afternoon at a regular meeting of the housing commission. Dorothy Latuszek, president of the housing commission, said programs at Ausagra Acres are suspended until further notice pending reorganization.

Latuszek said there is no need for seniors to be alarmed at the temporary closing, which is part of Housing and Urban Development standard procedure for a change in management of a housing commission. HUD guidelines call for an audit and inventory at the center, so the main office will be locked for a while, she said. The suspension of programs is a routine procedure and programs should be back to normal in a couple of weeks, Latuszek said. No one will be evicted from Ausagra Acres housing during the temporary halt of programs.

The model year of the snowmobiles ranges from 1978 to 1984. Anyone with information about the snowmobiles can call the Grayling City Police.

U.S. Loans Top O' Michigan $3.1 Million

The United States Department of Agriculture's Rural Electrification Administration has loaned $3,150,000 to Top O' Michigan, a rural electric company, announced Congressman Don Albosta.

The interest payment on the loan is five percent. The funds will be used to finance service for 1,530 additional customers by adding 168 miles of lines. The loan, along with financing from the National Rural Utilities Cooperative Corporation, will also be used for improvements in the Top O' Michigan system.

Albosta said the REA has once again proved itself a worthwhile, efficient government agency by providing the loan for the Michigan utility.

"Everyday the REA helps companies just like Top O' Michigan grow and expand according to needs," Albosta said. "Electricity makes Michigan run smoothly and the loan was made to insure plenty of it is made."

Top O' Michigan services Crawford County and 11 other counties in Michigan.

BRAVERY AWARD — Sheriff Joe White presented Robert Montgomery, 14, an award for his bravery and quick action in leading his brothers and sisters (ages 12, 10, 2, and 5 months) to safety while their home was on fire Feb. 6th. Landfill Rises

"Out of the Pits"

By Jon Thompson

A year ago, the county landfill stunk from more than just garbage. Employees were suspected of pocketing dumping fees. An additional trench had been dug illegally on state land. A landfill board member turned in an expense account with a $56 meal expense for one dinner. A monitor well showed contamination spreading from the dump. The operation was thousands in debt, and the list went on.

For all the problems surfacing at the joint Crawford-Otsego landfill, most county officials probably would have preferred to bury the entire operation and forget it.

One county official, Crawford County Commissioner John Miller, became so fed up with the situation, he almost single-handedly took the runaway landfill by the reins and stopped the nonsense.

For more than a year, Miller has visited the landfill at least four days a week to direct operations while receiving little pay. The entire landfill crew has been replaced. The operation is running in the black. Construction plans have been turned into the DNR to obtain land-use and landfill licenses. An engineer has been relieved of his duties connected with the landfill.

And besides correcting problems, Miller has been instrumental in making improvements at the landfill site in Maple Forest Township. The access road to the landfill has been improved - one of the reasons the landfill was able to lure an $80,000-a-year customer from a nearby landfill. The landfill will now be open seven days a week and there will be a new mulch bed where residents can dump their leaves for free and gardeners can haul them away for mulch. The landfill is also saving space by not burying large appliances anymore. The landfill receives a fee from residents for accepting the appliances and then a junk dealer hauls a load of appliances away at no charge.

Miller is also working on meeting a DNR requirement for a clay cover on used portions of the landfill. An earlier engineer plan calls for more than $300,000 to pay a private contractor to build the clay cover. Miller has located enough clay, about 180,000 yards, to meet the landfill needs and figures he can use landfill equipment and employees to compact it at the landfill. He's currently checking with the military to request assistance in hauling the clay to the landfill from the Bald Hill Road clay site.

Jeannette Kitchen, chairperson for the Crawford County Board of Commissioners, said Miller has gone beyond the call of duty in his work with the landfill. "His dedication is overwhelming," she said.

Girl Scout Sale Of Cookies Here Halted For Now

The Mitten Bay Girl Scout Council Board of Directors has determined that to avoid the further spread of alleged incidents with Girl Scout cookies the community would best be served by temporarily delaying the Girl Scout Cookie Sale.

The FBI and the FDA have been enlisted to help determine if any of these incidents violate federal law. Officials of Burry-Lu, Inc. today re-emphasized their concern about a growing number of reported incidences of alleged tampering with Girl Scout Cookies on Page 13

No More Lay-Offs Planned Says Mercy Hospital Chief

No further lay-offs are scheduled at Grayling Mercy Hospital, according to Sister Mary Ellen Howard, R.S.M., president and chief executive officer.

Speaking to employees of Mercy Hospital at the Employee Forum last week, she said "I think we should all breathe a sign of relief and put all of our energies into the challenges facing Mercy Hospital," adding, "it has been a difficult time for us all, but we need to move forward together."

During the question and answer portion of the forum, one employee raised the question whether further lay-offs were planned. The administrator said the necessary workforce reductions had been made and no further lay-offs are planned at this time. "I cannot promise you no one will ever be laid off again at Mercy Hospital, but, for the immediate future, lay-offs should not be necessary," she said.

Employees were assured the remaining staff should be sufficient to handle an increased patient load. "The administration had taken into account the busier summer months when lay-offs were planned," she said.

On Thursday, April 5, several laid-off employees attended a meeting organized by the hospital at the Holiday Inn in Grayling to help employees deal with lay-offs and assist them in finding new jobs. Available to assist employees at the meeting were Thomas Gifford, employee specialist/counselor from Traverse City, and Mike Businski, claims examiner for the Michigan Employment Security Commission. Also available were James Packard, vice president of Mercy Hospital; Kathryn Netwal, director of personnel; Sister Mary Generose Kubesh, R.S.M., pastoral care, and Cindy Scott, hospital social worker.

Mr. Besinski answered questions concerning unemployment benefits while other members assisted employees with questions concerning resumes, availability of jobs, and coping with the lay-off.

Mr. Packard stated the meeting was extremely successful and further meetings will be held if there is interest. He also said a newsletter would be printed for the former workers containing job information and hospital news.

The employees laid off remain on a recall list at Mercy for one year. As jobs become available through attrition, these employees will be called back, according to Mr. Packard.

Meanwhile, "Mercy Hospital will be doing everything in its power to assist former employees in finding new jobs and coping with unemployment," said Mr. Packard.

Tax Abatement Projects Deliver Promised Jobs

By Jon Thompson

Four companies given tax breaks by the city of Grayling have delivered jobs as promised.

City manager Jerry Morford reported to the city council that three companies, Custom Forest Products, Milltown Tool and Engineering, and Straits Aggregate, have created more than 80 jobs here. Councilman Robert Golinick had asked Morford to check on the city tax abatement projects to see if they had created as many jobs as anticipated when the tax breaks were issued.

The city gave the three companies 50 percent tax abatement up to 12 years under Act 198 for industrial development. Custom Forest Products was the first company to receive the tax break when it opened in February of 1982.

A fourth company, Delights Inc., was given a 50 percent tax abatement for up to 12 years under Act 255 for commercial redevelopment. The number of employees working for this company was not revealed to protect the rights of an individual company. Only a total for the other three companies receiving tax breaks under Act 198 was given - no employee figures were given for individual companies.

All the companies are located in the area of the city's industrial park.

GHS Roof Paying For Itself With 41% Energy Savings

By Jon Thompson

A new, heavily-insulated roof placed on the Grayling High School last fall has saved the building about 41 percent in fuel costs during the peak heating months of October through February.

"It's unbelievable," said Kent Reynolds, Crawford AuSable School District Superintendent. "We got a call from Michigan Con. because they thought it was a mistake in their meter readings."

The insulated roof saved the district about $28,320 this heating year. Allowing for ten percent inflation on natural gas costs, the five year estimated savings amount to $172,000, and in ten years the roof will save enough to pay for itself. "What it amounts to is practically a free roof because of the energy savings," Reynolds said.

The roof cost $340,000 spread over ten years through the use of energy bonds.

"We're getting calls from other school districts who can't believe the results," he said. "Word about the roof has been spreading through engineering circles."

Reynolds said there is a belief you don't benefit much from insulation with an R-factor above 18, but apparently the belief was never widely tested. The GHS roof has an R-factor of 28.

The encouraging results at the high school are leading school officials to consider putting a similar roof on the Grayling Elementary School. The Grayling Elementary has a 20-year-old roof about at the end of its life, according to engineers.

In other school board news, two nominating petitions for a single board of education position were filed. Todd Riley and Ann Stephenson, both from Grayling, will be on the June ballot competing for one four-year term.

At their regular meeting Monday, April 9, the school board also adopted the final resolution required to place a middle school bond issue before voters in the annual June school election.

City Police, Sheriff Dept. Adopt Missing Children Search Procedures

By Jon Thompson

The Grayling City Police and Crawford County Sheriff Department have joined together to create a swift, thorough action plan for finding missing children.

Immediately after a missing child is reported, a tracking dogs called in and a DNR airplane, military helicopter, five mounted sheriff officers, 24 sheriff and city reserve officers, the AuSable Emergency Radio Team, and an ambulance crew can be called if needed.

"The biggest value of adopting a missing child action procedure now is that everything will be ready when it's needed," City Police Chief Pete Stephan said.

Sheriff Joe White emphasized there is no waiting period necessary for parents to call in a missing child. As soon as a parent has reason to believe a child is missing, the city police or sheriff dept. should be called.

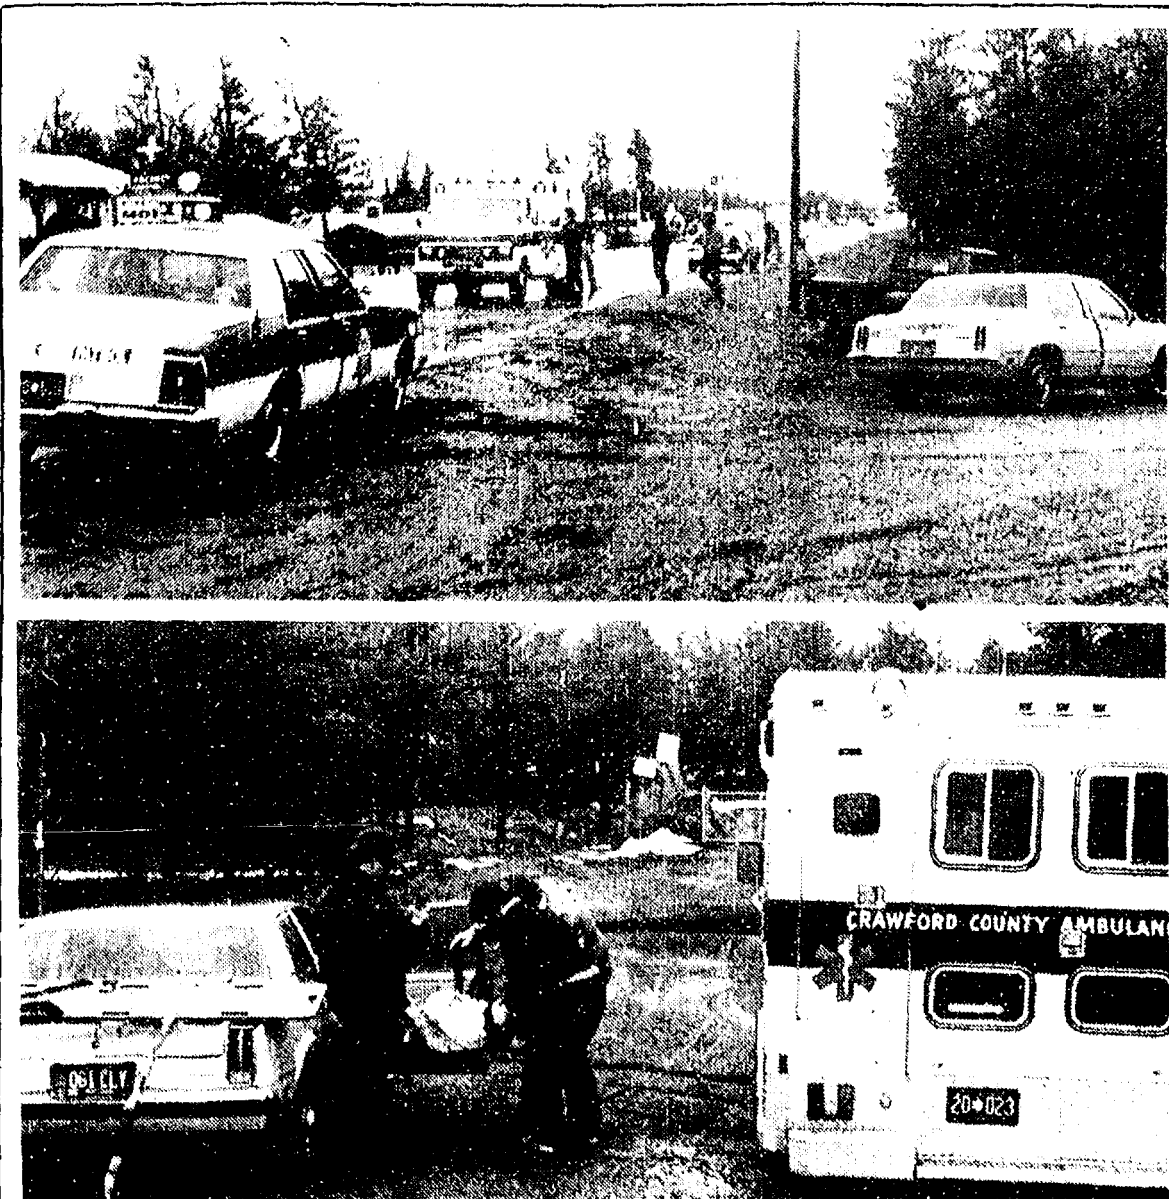

"The first 3-4 hours are usually the critical period for finding a child," Stephan said. "The whole intent of an action procedure is to speed the fact-gathering and start a search quicker."

The missing child action procedure is broken into five steps:

The first step is to gather information about the child and call the county tracking dog to the scene. The police officer receiving the initial report gathers information about the child, including age, description, place last seen, persons last with child, and the child's attitude before reported missing.

In the next step, the officer alerts the chief of police or sheriff to start the action plan. Information is entered in the law enforcement network and, if the child is school age, his or her school and teacher are notified and more information about the THREE INJURED — Three Grayling residents were injured in a three-car accident Friday along Old 27 North near the Lewiston Grade intersection. Laura Tinker, 63, Tracy Muth, 15, (being carried in bottom photo) and Danielle Leal, 19, were treated at Mercy Hospital. A 17-year-old Grayling boy was ticketed for failing to stop as his vehicle ran into two cars which were waiting for another vehicle to turn left.

Nationally Known Speaker
Visits Grayling High School

By Damon Thayer

"Who is the most important person in your life?" With those words, Jim Tuman began his presentation for Grayling High School students on April 3rd. Tuman, who lives in Detroit, spoke at two assemblies about "Goal-setting and Taking Control of Your Life." He amazed students with his speaking style, for instead of standing at a podium with a microphone, he mixed in with the students, walking among them to attempt to prove a point.

Tuman is a diverse man who leads an interesting life. He has started three national programs, one of them being Project Dialogue, which stresses learning by experience. As coordinator of the program, Tuman subjects his students to real-life situations, such as having them spend a day in a jail cell, a wheelchair, or an unemployment line.

Wednesday, April 11, at 8:30 p.m. the zone committee will be meeting. Saturday, April 14, officers meeting at 5:30 p.m. followed by initiation, pot luck and record dance. Men's meeting is April 16, at 8:00 p.m.

Jim Tuman and Dialogue, which has been taught in several major U.S. cities, have been featured on ABC, CBS, and NBC national news; and on such television programs as "Today," "Good Morning America," "Phil Donahue," "PM Magazine," and "Hour Magazine." Articles about Tuman's work with teens have been published in Time, Newsweek, The Washington Post, The Los Angeles Times, USA Today, and both Detroit daily papers. The Dialogue program has also been featured on 100 radio stations nationwide.

In his speeches to teenagers, Tuman stresses the fact that the world after high school is a tough one, and in order to succeed and be fulfilled, one must set specific goals and take control now, before it is too late. Project Dialogue provides students with insight into reality; and Tuman is always there to make sure that they know that being unemployed or disabled is not very easy.

At Grayling High School, the student response to Jim Tuman was very positive. Some were overwhelmed with his high energy talks, and surprised to see that one man could have so much concern for young people. Tuman, whose several hobbies include being a member of the 1980 Olympic Bobsled team and touring with the rock band Journey, simply responds to his incredible effect on people by saying "I love kids. And I love what I'm doing in life: helping other people." And, of course, the answer to his first question is simply: YOURSELF, in the sense that one should control one's own life, and not be controlled by others.

FACTS OF LAW

By Alton T. Davis & William L. Carey

Attorneys & Counsellors at Law

In most states, parents are liable for the injuries or damages inflicted by a child upon the person or property of others - until the child is eighteen.

The federal government cannot remove a person's citizenship for voting in a political election in a foreign country.

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT is defined as a serious or dangerous attack, such as an attack with a knife. It is considered a crime in most states.

In the days before American independence, only English religious or ecclesiastical courts could annul an invalid marriage. Now, most states have statutes granting them authority to annul marriages through the courts.

The childrens April field trips include a trip to the airport and to Millikins for a learning experience, and of course, April is the month for our Great Easter Egg Hunt scheduled for April 12th and 13th sponsored by the student council. The Easter parties will also be on that day.

We are looking for a volunteer for summer to take care of the outside of the building. If your child will be attending the school in the 1984-85 year and you would be interested, contact Donna Molnar at 348-8835. We would very much appreciate your help.

Consumers Denounces Plan To Halt Construction
at Midland

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

A proposal calling on Consumers Power Company to abandon construction of the controversial Midland nuclear electric generating facility was criticized by the utility as a "blueprint" for electric shortage in the future.

The proposal, drafted by staff members of the Public Service Commission, Attorney General Frank Kelley, the Michigan Citizens Lobby and members of ABATE — an association of 33 of the state's largest business advocating equal electric rates — was recently presented to the company.

The plan, called by some a "survival plan" for the state's largest utility, would provide for customers to pay an additional $81.6 million a year for 25 years, allows for a 7.1 percent electric rate increase, worth $100 million (not the $212 million requested) and requires Consumers to institute an offsetting rate reduction of $96 million, phased out over five years, with the PSC approving resumption.

Kelley said the plan, if adopted, would prevent Consumers electric customers from paying rate increases of 40 percent higher — if one unit of the nuclear facility is completed — to 97 percent higher — if both units of the plant are completed.

Kelley added the plan also offers Consumers Power a way of abandoning the plant, but restoring itself to fiscal health by retaining $967 million of its common equity, as well as all its preferred stock and preference stock equity.

Holding those assets, Kelley said, would prevent possible reorganization of the company.

The Midland plant has been the subject of intense controversy for more than a decade.

In 1972, the utility estimated it would cost some $339 million to build the plant.

The price tag, the Dow Chemical Company of Midland — which is one of the members of ABATE — announced it would not buy steam from the facility if completed.

The total plan prepared by four different organizations would require customers to pay a large share of the loss of the Midland plant.

In addition to the provisions relative to the stock dividends and rate increases, the plan provides for Consumers to write off approximately $1,360 million worth, to reflect its share of the Midland loss and no new rate increase until 1986, with increases for 10 years after that being held to the annual increase in the consumer price index.

In response, Consumers issued a release which said the utility has never failed "in nearly 100 years" to meet customer needs for electric service.

But the plan proposed is a "blueprint for shortage," because the Midland plant is a "key" to the utility's future ability to provide service.

"The rate restrictions and write-offs in the proposed settlement would make it impossible for Consumers Power Co. to raise sufficient funds to continue to render reliable electric service in our service area."

"We would be unable to issue first mortgage bonds and common stock, essential if we are to construct the facilities needed to serve our customers. Instead of being a survival plan the proposal is a poorly considered plan which would result in an inadequate energy base for our service area for many years to come," the company said.

Grayling Central School
Building Burned

Thurs., Jan. 21, 1915
The fire was discovered at 12:30 p.m. There were no students in the school building. The first part of the building was constructed in 1883 and consisted of two stories. Size was 34' by 50'. Halls were 10' by 22' and rooms 14' by 22'. Cost $4,500. Since the initial structure three additions have been built.

Just at this time it will be interesting to know that the first school in Grayling was held in a cedar shanty at about the S.E. corner of the present Michigan Central Roundhouse (near the present location of the new county building). At that time there were six children of school age, only three of whom attended school. Later the school was established in a lumber camp building, located in the block at the rear of the old Black and White Grocery Store. After a few years of school here the building now occupied as a town hall (now the Crawford County Historical Museum) was built for school purposes. At this time it was only about half the present size. This was used until the late school building was established in 1883.

One may hear all kinds of talk about what kind of a school should be built. One report is around that we should build two buildings, one to be located on the site of the one that burned, for the grades, and the other near the fish hatchery for the high school. Of course this idea will never materialize. Another idea is for a "six and six building." This is a building for six grades on the first floor and six on the second floor, the latter to be the high school. This is a modern idea and is reported to be very successful. There will be about $15,000 insurance available and some are in favor of adding $10,000 with it which to erect a building; of course others want a building to cost no less than $100,000. Of course these two amounts are extremes, one low and the other beyond necessity.

School is being held in various churches and the Temple Theater.

School Board Selects Architect. People approve school bonding. Cost not to exceed $50,000. April 15, 1915.

Architect Jens Peterson of Traverse City was present on election day to explain drawings.

The question that is agitating the people most at present is regarding the location of the building on the block. Some want it to face West and some East, while others want it to face North or South. According to the dimensions of the building the latter way would only allow 30' of land on each side of the structure. Should it face West it would face a block containing the town hall sheds, Bauman's and Michelson's horse barns. Mr. Bauman says that he intends to remove his barn and build two houses on these lots, and it is believed that the township will ultimately remove their unsightly sheds.

The streets in Grayling do not run parallel North and South but at an angle of about 45 degrees, and it has been suggested that the building be placed north and south, which would make it on an angle with the block and awkward.

Work begins on school building. May 13, 1915.

Contracts $55,665, Building and material $44,213, Heating and ventilation $8,902, plumbing $2,550. Contractor George Lathers has notified the members of the school board that he will be ready to turn the new building over to the board on Dec. 15, 1915. After that the seats and other equipment will have to be installed and it is doubtful if the school may be moved into the new quarters before mid January, is the opinion of the board members.

The architectural plans are by Jens Peterson of Traverse City. This building was constructed by George Lathers also of Traverse City, at a cost of $57,000. The heating system was installed by Bruce Heating and Ventilating Co. of Toledo, Ohio; the plumbing by Frank Deckrow of Grayling; and the electric wiring by The F.C. Teal Co. of Detroit, Michigan.

The above material has been taken from the many pages of Historical Material that I have on hand.

My own thoughts: It is my opinion that the people of the school district have obtained about the maximum of mileage from this old building. We know there has been a lot of wear and tear on this building since it was opened to the students on January 21, 1916. This school building has been used for 68 years. I think it is time to have a new school for our future citizens.

New Area Manager Named For Consumers

Prudenville, Mi. - March 26, 1984 - Lendburgh Hoofman, new area manager of Consumers Power in the tri-county area north and south of Houghton Lake and Higgins Lake, has his feet wet now and is looking ahead to the rest of 1984 and beyond.

"This is my first assignment as a manager," Hoofman said, "and it takes a while to get to know the territory, as they say."

Now that he knows it, he is moving into such community involvements as the Clare Rotary Club and the Industrial Development Corporation in Clare and Prudenville.

"Consumers Power has a big stake in the future of Michigan, and that future depends upon areas like ours having a healthy economy. I hope I can help not only in helping our employees do their jobs well but also with my involvement in community service groups like Rotary and the Industrial Development Corporation," he said.

Hoofman, 52, manages Consumers Power's Prudenville-Clare offices that are part of the utility's largest region, the Northern Region headquartered in Traverse City. The Prudenville office serves customers in Prudenville, Houghton Lake, Grayling, Harrison, Clare and other communities in Roscommon, Crawford and Clare counties.

Hoofman is an experienced utility employee. He joined Consumers Power 30 years ago as a groundman on an electric line crew in Muskegon and worked his way up to become an electric distribution supervisor there.

He was transferred to Grand Rapids in 1978 and a year later was named electric distribution supervisor for Holland and Zeeland. Then last July came the promotion to Prudenville.

The Prudenville-Clare area office serves approximately 42,372 electric customers. The entire Northern Region serves 206,000 electric customers. The region covers 11,000 square miles from Lake Michigan to Lake Huron and from central Isabella County to the Mackinac Bridge.

Hoofman and his wife, Carolyn, like him a native of Muskegon, have three children: Douglas of Grand Rapids, Mark of Muskegon and daughter Kelly, a junior high student still at home with them at 116 Ninth St., Prudenville.

Hoofman has hunted big game for 25 years in the western United States and Alaska, Canada and Africa. He is going to Alaska soon to hunt grizzly bears.

"As secretary-treasurer of the Michigan Safari Club International, I have been able to assist the chapter's work with the Dept. of Natural Resources and Michigan State University on state projects like the preservation of the elk herd in the Pigeon River country and introducing moose in the Upper Peninsula," he said.

Have you ever baked bread in a frying pan over an open fire? Probably not, but for those of you who might be interested, I came across a method which is a bit better than other ways I have tried.

You will need 2 cups (not necessarily a measuring cup) of flour, 2 or 3 tablespoons of bacon grease, 1/2 teaspoon of salt, and 2 teaspoons of baking powder (with the exception of the melted fat, this mixture could be mixed at home). Mix these ingredients in the frying pan with enough water to make a stiff dough. Place your well-greased pan on a layer of thinned-out coals. Scrape more coals around the sides of the pot. If you don't wish to turn the "bannock" over after a few minutes, cover the dough with tinfoil which is covered with coals. After about 10 minutes, check with a clean twig to see if any dough sticks to it. If it doesn't, the bread is done; otherwise, bake for a few minutes more.

If you are canoeing or backpacking, the bannock may be carried right in the pan after it is cooled so that it may be eaten at noon. You should be able to bake a pan-sized loaf in 15 minutes depending on your fire.

The word "Bannock" is an Old Gaelic word, which originally meant an oat or barley-meal cake cooked on a griddle. Whatever you call it (Bannock or camp bread), it can be a welcome addition to any camp menu.

Editor's Mailbox

Dear Whitey,
In response to the letter from "unproud" Julee Thayer Houlton concerning Camp Shawono, I think a few points should be brought to light.

1. Youth of 16 yrs. old are not supposed to work over 30 hrs./wk according to state law - so who is kidding who?

2. The State Police and local Sheriff's Dept. were called out to Camp Shawono in Jan. '84 and Feb. '84 to calm riots.

3. The Hanson Hills incident also happened in Feb. '84.

4. The State Police are now investigating an attempted murder at Shawono's sister-camp-Camp Nokomis.

Before we get all carried away with praising Camp Shawono youth, we must not be so naive as to forget that these boys are also delinquents with histories of misdemeanors and felonies!!

The Crawford AuSable
School District ReportBy Kent Reynolds
Crawford AuSable Superintendent

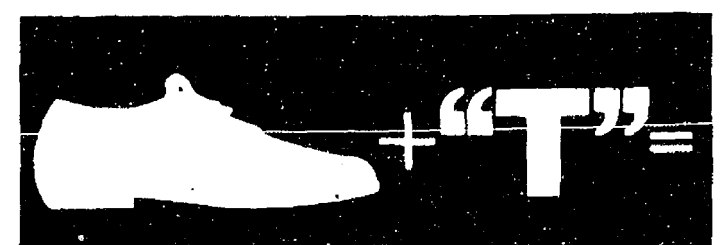

The word discipline carries as many varied definitions as there are those who venture an opinion regarding the state of discipline in schools. The expectation of the general public, however, is that good discipline must be enforced.

The primary intent of society in establishing the public schools was to provide an opportunity for learning. To preserve that intent, schools must insure the rights of students to the opportunity for learning. Activities by individuals or groups of individuals which disrupt any student's opportunity for learning must not be tolerated.

Section 1300 of the School Code requires each local school board to "make reasonable regulations relative to anything necessary for the proper establishment, maintenance, management, and carrying on of the public schools of the district, including regulations relative to the conduct of pupils concerning their safety while in attendance at school or enroute to and from school." This statute gives local boards of education the authority to establish codes of conduct, attendance policies and any other policies deemed necessary and appropriate in order to maintain an atmosphere conducive to learning.

The Crawford AuSable School District has begun the process of reviewing its existing student code of conduct. A review should be conducted periodically to insure compliance with applicable statutes, current interpretation of procedural due process, State Board of Education policy, and expectations of the community served by the school.

The educational atmosphere within the Crawford AuSable schools and classrooms provides every student with the opportunity for learning. It is vitally important that that opportunity be preserved. If you would like to participate in the review process please contact the school district office at 348-8741. Your input will be welcome.

From Our Corner...

Now that spring has arrived except for a day now and then when Mother Nature throws in a cold day with snow flurries just to remind us that we are still living in the north country, and it takes a little while to warm up after the five months of winter we've just experienced...it is getting close to the opening of trout season that brings the anglers to Grayling to try their luck on the AuSable and Manistee Rivers...

With the opening of trout season also brings the opening of the Grayling Fish Hatchery, which is still in its infancy as it begins the second year of operation...the Fish Hatchery needs financial help to open...anyone wishing to donate, which is tax deductible, may send their contribution to Grayling Fish Hatchery, Grayling, Mi, 49738...it is anticipated that some 50,000 tourist will pass through the gates this summer...

To help the cause and get the ball rolling a Beaver Dinner will be held Sunday, April 15th from 12:30 to 5:30 at the Lovells Riverside Tavern overlooking the North Branch of the AuSable...donation is $5.00 per and all proceeds go to the Fish Hatchery...

In conjunction with the Beaver Dinner the Grayling Fish Hatchery announced the 1st annual Trout Management Program presented by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources will also be held in the evening of Sunday, April 15th at the Grayling Holiday Inn...All interested trout fishermen are urged to attend this 7:00 p.m. program...

Help the Fish Hatchery, eat Beaver Sunday...

How's that for taking up a half of a turkey talking about beaver and trout...we had planned on not writing about birds or animals or fish until we could report on the return of the Baltimore Orioles in our back yard but, Bobby Smock, Jr., who has spearheaded the opening of the abandoned Fish Hatchery as a tourist attraction begged us to give them a shot in the arm in Our Corner...he said there may be a couple people who read your junk that may give a buck or two, and we need all the help we can get...

We had good news about our den the other night...Thelma talked to Dane and if everything works out for them they plan on coming to Michigan in the middle of May...there is no doubt in our mind that the stuff (mostly junk) will be removed from the room before they arrive...Dane won't even know it was his bedroom at one time, we hope...like we mentioned before, we don't mind the summers walking down to the office on Sunday but, dang it all, there have been many winter Sundays that if we had had our druthers we'd druther stayed home...but then, it's spring remember, and our bride's thoughts are turning to the golf course to chase that little white ball around, something she missed out on last summer...she told us the other day that if it didn't bother her playing golf I'd better plan on having cold beans for Sunday night's meal...she added...I'm going to make up for last year...

Gee, I hope the Orioles stay around for awhile...it doesn't take too much to amuse the ol' fella...

On our way to T.C. Saturday we ran into R.J. at the Old Dam Party Store and we told him we had missed his smiling face around the Avalanche and besides lately we have needed some copy for our column and while he was a downtown businessman he furnished us with quite a bit...we really could have used him this week but, he told us he hadn't been doing much and hadn't been to his beloved jungle since Christmas...so I guess we'll have to wait for his Easter break, he has to do something exciting with that time off...

If the above is a little confusing as to the Saturday bit, don't pay any attention to it, we had that in last week's column but, ran out of room so figured we'd help fill this week's turkey with it...besides, Rena had already set it and she frowns when we throw any type away without using it...can't blame her too much, we'd hate to have to count the words that it takes to fill up one issue...

This about takes care of this week's efforts so we will bid T.J., Stefany and Amber goodnight...and to all of our readers have a nice weekend,

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

THE ERA MOVEMENT

All non-prejudiced persons should be in favor of equal rights for women. By this we mean that women are equal to men in value or worth as human persons. They should receive equal pay for equal work. They should receive equal honor and respect throughout our society. There are already sufficient laws in most states to provide this equality. The problem is not legal, but rather prejudice within the hearts of people. The same is true of racism. It is interesting that a growing number of women have discovered that the ERA was actually a threat to many of the privileges most of us want women to retain. The military draft is one prime example. Their treatment in divorce courts and provision for support of the home is another.

From the Communists' theoretical journal, "Political Affairs", we read: "Women's liberation...is the most important aspect of the class struggle going on today...In order to subdue a nation - as tyrants down through the ages have known - one must first destroy the moral fiber of its people. To create a 'new world' and a 'new man' envisioned by the Communists and their like-minded fellow travelers, the very foundations of Judaic-Christian culture - the family - must be ridiculed and destroyed especially in the minds of the young."

May we now share with you a quote from the January/February 1976 issue of "The Humanist" magazine: "Something wonderful, free, unheralded, and of significance to all humanists is happening in the secondary schools. It is the adolescent literature movement. They may burn Slaughter-house Five in North Dakota and ban a number of innocuous books in Kanawah County, but thank God the crazies don't do all that much reading. If they did, they'd find that they have already been defeated. Adolescent literature has opened Pandora's box...Nothing that is part of contemporary life is taboo in this genre, and any valid piece of writing that helps to make the world more knowable to young people serves an important humanistic function."

We repeat the following quote from Channel 6 on Omaha, Neb. by a state legislator, the head of the state PTA and the lobbyists for the NEA and the State School Board: "We have to control church schools because Fundamental Bible-believing Christians do not have the right to indoctrinate their Children in their faith, because we, the state, are preparing all children for the year 2000, when America will be part of the one-world global society and their children won't fit in."

Maybe "the crazies don't do all that much reading," but we do enough to know what the Humanists, the Socialists, and the Communists are up to! (adv.)

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Souders have returned to their home here after spending five months in Gulf Shores, Alabama. On February 11 they were in Gainesville, Florida, to attend the wedding of their granddaughter, Susan Knutilla, daughter of Bob and Shirley Knutilla, of Tampa, to John Gonsky, Jr. They are both graduates of the University of Florida. She is employed as a physical therapist and he as a nuclear physicist in the Daytona area.

Imagine Scott and Therese Fick's surprise on Monday evening of last week when they saw a bear standing in the road under the street light about 100 yards from their house in Mobile Estates. Scott said the bear just ambled off toward the river.

To The Editor:
The Grayling Promotional Association (GPA) is now one year old. GPA is a non-profit organization, which was formed under the direction of Judy Gibbons and Jan Olson. Their initial thought was to bring business women of the community together to work with a more organized front. Since then, the idea has expanded to community involvement and awareness by any interested woman.

Judy and Jan's initiative has paid off, and the GPA membership has grown. We are working toward pulling our community together to make Grayling a better place to live, visit and shop.

Since February of 1984, GPA has a set of By-Laws which govern a better organization. In those By-Laws, the objectives of the GPA are:

*to increase awareness and concern between members of the business community;

*to increase cooperation and awareness between the business community and the community in general; and *for members of the business community to work cooperatively for the benefit, education and promotion of the community of Grayling.

In the past year, GPA has participated in the Milltown Festival, the Crawford County Fair, a Christmas Celebration - we were responsible for coordinating the white lights which decorated a good part of the community, and, hopefully, Christmas '84 will be even whiter! Our float entry for the Winter Carnival, "Yoda", took first place! We also hosted the Wine and Cheese Party for Artrain.

Some of our current projects include an Easter Egg Hunt on Easter Sunday, and Children's Day for the Milltown Festival. Further, we invite speakers to our meetings periodically to keep us informed on current events.

Although our goals are business oriented, we encourage any woman of the community who is interested in becoming more aware of and involved in our growing community to join our association and share their ideas. We wish to invite any woman of the community to attend our weekly meetings, which are held at Chief Shoppe-nagons Hotel from Noon to 1:00 p.m. every Tuesday.

Sincerely,
GPA Membership Committee

Bike Ride Fights Childhood Cancer

Grayling, May 5th...Bike-a-thon chairman Lorna Morse today asked Grayling residents to participate in the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital "Wheels-for-Life" Bike-a-thon to be held May 5 at Michelson United Methodist Church.

Volunteers workers and riders are needed for the Bike-a-thon to raise funds for the world-famous research center and its battle against childhood cancer and other catastrophic childhood diseases.

Mrs. Morse said this year's ride is being dedicated to Terry, a leukemia patient at St. Jude. "By riding for Terry, we'll really be helping all stricken children since research is the only way these illnesses can be conquered," Morse said. "We're looking for people who will contribute some of their time and energy to help children live. We really need bike riders, since they are the ones who can make this Bike-a-thon successful."

In the Bike-a-thon, riders enlist sponsors who donate a sum for each mile completed. Riders who raise $25 will receive a St. Jude T-shirt, and those raising $75 will receive a barrel tote bag," said Mrs. Morse. Sponsor forms are available at United Methodist Church office or all school offices. For more information call 348-7037.

Community Fun Day & Flea Market

The Community Fun Day and Flea Market Saturday, April 28th, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Grayling Middle School gym promises to be an exciting event.

There will be games for the kids, flea market and crafts for the adults, food for everyone including hot dogs, tacos, pie and coffee, as well as interesting exhibits by local groups.

There will be a jazzercise demonstration and Lucy from Originals by Lucy will be there with her special balloons.

The American Red Cross disaster van will be parked outside with volunteers to tell about what Red Cross provides for emergencies and there will be Yogi Bear, Little Caesar, Big Boy, etc.

There are still a few booths available for organizations or groups who want to join the fun and promote their group. For more information contact the Sibs for Kids office at 348-2841 ext. 262. Come and enjoy the fun with your whole family.

Crawford County Board of Commissioners

March 29, 1984 - Regular Meeting SYNOPSIS

The March 29th meeting of the County Board convened at 9:30 a.m. Kitchen, Harland, Neilson and Welser attended all day. Joyce attended the morning session only; Miller was excused at 2:17 p.m.; Mattis was absent; and ten visitors attended at various times.

IN FORMAL ACTION, THE BOARD:

—Accepted the March 13th minutes as presented.

—Held a twenty minute closed session to discuss union negotiations.

—Reviewed and accepted twenty five pieces of correspondence.

—Voted to retain the County Prosecutor as a part-time position.

—Adopted a resolution re-designating $55,242.00 of MSHDA CHIP Write-Down Program funds to a county-wide rental rehabilitation project. (This is a program administered through the Office of Housing and Community Development.)

—Amended a motion of 3/13/84 by deleting the stipulation that the Sheriff purchase patrol vehicles at the state auction. The auction vehicles had turned out to be unsuitable for our needs.

—Tabled action on a resolution to pick up twenty months past service of the probation officer under the Municipal Employees Retirement System. The "released obligation" of Roscommon County was found to be $217,000 instead of $1,354,000 previously quoted. The tabling of the matter was due to absence of the two thirds membership necessary to act.

REPORTS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS:

—DSS reported that the hospital coverage has been expanded to include persons whose condition could result in permanent damage if not treated. The policy will not obligate the County Board for any more than the budgeted appropriation.

—The City Housing Commission has requested rent payments from the Commission on Aging for use of the meeting room. Another meeting facility is being sought.

—Soil Conservation reported that response has been good to the wood lot marking program. Charges are minimal; and a summer crew is being organized to inventory the lots. Work along the river banks is also underway.

—Committee work on implementation of the Consumer Power address numbering system is nearly complete. Base maps are being obtained for use by the postal service.

—The District Health report covered the proposed new middle school, budget and staffing of the Department and a review of services. Concern was expressed that the school expansion did not include a sewer. Miller stated that any sewer or septic plans would be processed through the County DPW. The Department's 1985 request, which Crawford representatives voted against, seeks an $85,499.00 appropriation with much of the increase earmarked for personnel expansion. Services available for women were reviewed; and it was reported that over 27 thousand walk-in patients were served last year.

—The Zoning Commission granted a special use permit for recreation repair business in Beaver Creek Township.

—DPW reported that volume is up at the landfill; finances are stable and the road is holding up well. One half-time and two full-time positions have been filled. Recycling is being initiated; and a mulch bed is planned. Excess equipment may be traded in on a crane; and emergency radio equipment is being installed to supplement the absence of a telephone in the site area. Construction plans are still awaiting approval; and the Corp of Engineers will be asked to assist with the clay cover. Engineer Robinson is no longer employed by the Landfill Board.

—Insurance coverage for the landfill is being pursued through the County's insurance authority.

—Jack Hull has resigned from the Planning Commission.

—The Consortium representative reported that the Fish Hatchery Proposal is being returned for minor corrections; grievance procedures for the JTPA programs are being completed and the Dept. of Commerce is pursuing a merger of the NEMCOG and Consortium agencies.

—The finance report included review of the 1983 year-end statement and the Jan. 1984 budget printout. Expenditures exceeding $100.00 will require pre-approval. Charges for building permits and ambulance runs will be reviewed.

—The Sheriff reported that a deputy has been reinstated; and a corrections officer has been hired. Delinquent ambulance billings are being referred to the Prosecutor. A Calhoun County resolution was reviewed. It supported requiring a concealed weapons permit in order to transport a crossbow in a vehicle. The Sheriff demonstrated a crossbow, showing how it could be used as a deadly silent weapon. Boarding of female prisoners was also discussed.

—The Clerk reported that recent sewer problems have been resolved; and that the front door will be repaired.

—The assessing contract with the City was reviewed; and a tentative increase of $2 thousand to $3 thousand is being considered. Whether adequate staff is available to do the work was discussed, along with possible alternatives to fulfilling contract requirements. The Equalization Director will review the matter, and report back.

—The position of County representative to the Tax Allocation Board will be advertised.

IN OTHER BUSINESS, THE BOARD:

—Selected John Alef II, Donna Masker, James Packard and Don Schanz in balloting for the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

—Discussed the status of plans for the railroad depot.

—Discussed with the Road Commission the establishment of a normal lake level for Salling Lake. Cost will be covered by special assessment; and consensus of the Board was that the Road Commission Engineer proceed with the project. Also discussed was the condition of Jones Lake and Lewiston Grade Roads, a new Road Commission retirement program for employees, and the Road Commission's 1983 Annual Financial Report and Supporting Schedules.

—Delayed consideration of an Attorney General Opinion regarding assessment of easements across railroad right-of-ways until the next meeting.

—Delayed action on a request for pay for unused sick time from an employee pending further information.

—Presented a Certificate of Appreciation to Maureen McNamara for her years of service on the Social Services Board.

Meeting adjourned at 3:12 p.m.

Foxes on the increase! A son, Wesley Scott was born to Gary and Denae Fox on 4-9-84. This little man weighed in at 8 lbs. 4 ozs. and was 21" long. They will tour England, Germany, Austria, France, and Switzerland.

Support Group

The Support Group for parents which meets regularly every Monday from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. at Michelson Methodist Church, will not be meeting on Monday, April 16th, during the Easter break. We will resume again on Monday, April 23rd.

This support group is for parents, who may be a one-parent family or two, who occasionally "lose their cool" with the kids. Meeting together with other persons can be very helpful in coping with the demands of parenting.

It is hoped that this group will develop into a Parents Anonymous Chapter here in this community. Several persons involved in the formation of this group were involved in P.A. chapters downstate and have seen the benefits of this type of support group.

If you would like more information, call Kathy at 348-8702.

According to company spokesmen, the company has offered a reward of $1,000.00 to anyone providing information leading to the arrest and eventual conviction of persons found to be tampering with Girl Scout cookies baked by Burry-Lu being distributed in the 21-county area of the Mitten Bay Council.

Congratulations Grayling High School!

The Blood Bank conducted by the Grayling High School Students March 28th was an outstanding success! One hundred twenty five wonderful Blood Donors came to give a pint of their precious blood and twenty of them were first time Donors - all Grayling High School students!

Under the leadership of Gina Medley and Carol Longworth - the Student Red Cross Volunteers performed all the tasks normally performed by adult Red Cross Volunteers at the Blood Banks held at the American Legion Hall.

Histories were taken by, and the blood was drawn, of course, by the regular Red Cross Staff Nurses, but the identification of the plastic "bottles", registration, walking to the tables, walking to the recovery tables, serving of refreshments, etc., all were accomplished by Grayling High School Students, and their performance was most meritorious.

American Red Cross commends you all, and express their deep appreciation of your good work!

You have helped fellow citizens stay alive by your effort and your blood doing!

Chamber Chatter

By Joyce Kolka

Wasn't it great! A very rewarding experience! Fantastic! Those were the expressions of the Artrain visitors and rightfully so. It certainly was a beautiful experience that one will long remember. The cooperation and attendance from the community was unbelievable.

Word has been received from the sheriff's office that many local professional and lay people are being solicited for donations and advertising over the telephone. What's even worse, the caller claims he is from the local police or sheriff's department or is representing it through an organization. Crawford County Sheriff, Joe White, has informed the chamber that if their office endorses an organization, their representative will be given a letter of introduction which is to be shown personally upon introduction. If anyone is solicited by telephone, he should inform the caller that he is not interested and hang up the receiver.

The new chamber building in the city park is shaping up nicely. The inside painting is completed and the counters in the work room are well underway. Supervisor, Dale Lesh, reports that the outside will be completed as soon as the weather warms up. This building will certainly be another plus for the community. A big thanks goes to C.O.O.R. Intermediate School District, Crawford AuSable School District, Dale Lesh and the building trades class, also to Randy Thompson and Ernie Dawson who turned an idea into a reality.

There are some businesses changing hands and expanding in the area. We will be mentioning them when we have dates for their grand openings or ribbon cuttings. Grayling is growing!

CHURCH DIRECTORY

A parade, a luncheon, a fashion show, the crowning of a queen, the annual ball—all part of the elaborate Cherry Blossom Festival soon to take place in Washington. But will there be a single cherry tree in bloom?

Have you ever seriously considered the uncertainties that so often hide certainty? Sure, nobody knows when the Tidal Basin will wear its wreath of blossoms. But everybody knows it will!

The mysteries of religion are like that. Do church bells call men to wonder... or to worship? Is faith the answer to every theological riddle... or is it simply trust in God?

It makes more sense to concentrate on a spiritual certainty than to speculate about uncertainties. Trust in God. He will allay your doubts.

Health Camp Seminars Here

If, at the end of your usual vacation, you come home to the "same old grind", take heart. There is a vacation that can open the door to a whole new lifestyle!

Dr. Arthur Weaver, Professor of Surgery at Wayne State University and the Director of Better Living Seminars, a non-profit health-related organization will be holding the Seminar's annual Health Camp from May 20 through May 27 at Ranch AuSable in Grayling.

Here, in a scenic 900-acre setting, one can take advantage of nature's beauty, recreation, and health-restoring influences. Programs to be offered include a Live-In Stop-Smoking Clinic, Weight Control Seminar, Stress Management Seminar, and Creative Cooking Without Meat Classes. Other activities include: Canoeing, horseback riding, exercise classes, bird watching, ceramics, nature trails, health and lifestyle counseling.

"Good Health", according to Dr. Weaver, "is more than the absence of discernable disease". "Good health", he continues, "is a positive attitude and feeling of well being in the physical, mental, social, and spiritual dimensions of life. It includes creativeness, enthusiasm about life, and a vibrant and active lifestyle."

The complete cost for the eight days at the Health Camp is $275 per person or $470 per couple. Send for a free Health Camp brochure to: Better Living Seminars, P.O. Box 574, Plymouth, MI 48170.

American Legion Auxiliary News

By Laurie Jensen,
P.R. Director

Ladies, I would like to remind you that our monthly meeting is tonight, (Wednesday) the 11th at 7:30 p.m. I hope to see many of you out for this meeting. I can give you the basic's of what is going on in the Auxiliary but there are many other things going on that you should check out. See you there!

We have our Annual Feather Bingo coming up this Sunday the 15th from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. Feather Bingo is always a good time and everyone that attends always seems to have a good time. Come out and see what kind of feathers that we will be giving away!! Remember to remind your friends of this fun event. Besides, what else do you have to do on Sunday afternoons?

The American Legion Veterans Service Officer will be at the American Legion Post on Wednesday, April 25 from 9:45 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. to assist all veterans and their dependents with any claims they may have with the veterans administration.

Don't forget that we have Bingo down at our Post every Thursday night at 7:00 p.m. We are beginning to get back some of our old crowd and that is because our Party has changed some. Why don't you come down Thursday and see for yourself what we have done with the bingo.

The ladies are still out selling Poppy Seals. If you don't know what a Poppy Seal is it is for your letters like the Easter Seals. These remind people what we are actually all about at the legion.

It looks like we will be having the kid's in school work on Poppy Posters. This is always a fun project as well as a worthwhile one. If anyone has any questions about this, please contact Roselyn Johnson at 348-7756.

I will close this down for now. We are fortunate that neither the men or the women have anyone in the hospital at this time.

Par For The Course

by Fay Bovee

The robins are back, the golfers are back and the "Snow-Birds" are coming back.

Although the course is still not bare in a few spots, the past two beautiful weekends have brought out the hardier golfers, now too numerous to mention by name.

The Club Opening and Happy Hour are scheduled for Friday, April 20, the Ladies League Organizational Meeting is Tuesday, April 24, and the Men's Leagues start on May 1 and 2.

Due to a conflict, the Opening Party will be held on May 12 instead of the scheduled May 5. The party is being chairmanned by Charles and Marilyn Fick and promises a good dinner and good music. It is hoped to have everyone contacted for tickets, but in case you are missed, please notify the Ficks or us, Bob and Fay Bovee.

Membership application blanks are now available at the clubhouse according to Manager Gordon Cheyne.

Senior Citizens

Special Program Series

Mon., April 16, 1:30 p.m. It is with regret that we must cancel the presentation that we had scheduled for this date. We will try to arrange for this speaker another time in the near future, but for today, let's have a Coffee Clutch and discuss future programming.

If we have had a speaker you enjoyed or an activity you considered special, we can even arrange a repeat performance. Let's talk about it - your suggestions are important and we appreciate feedback.

We always meet in the Center's main dining room at 308 Lawndale, or you can call 348-9314 and ask for Donna. I'm here at the Center on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Remember that the dinner meal is served at the center at 5:00 p.m. each day through Thursday, and at 12:00 noon on Friday. A suggested donation of $1.35 for the dinner. Why not plan to join us one day this week? Please call your reservation in advance.
